

NEW ADULT TAROT

we guessed how it was then we checked
and it's true
the american dream
has dissolved
boo hoo hoo

with pavement and glass with kids we can't speak to with cars without gas

oh my god oh my god
what has happened to us where were we running why all the fuss

has dissolved boo hoo hoo it's all still going on an endless view an endless song

if you fold life over

on

contradiction

enough times

it will disappear !

ask your son's forgiveness ask it once again

ask your son's forgiveness
ask it for your sins

for the violence
discover love again through him oh dear how we were so asleep how our anger did arise how the violence of society did blind us in the eyes how the pressure of the daily cares did squeeze us here and there how our love turned into anguish though in fact we really care love is hiding in disguise

covered up
with hate despise

if you can take it
and distill
the rubbish
from material
you've done your work extremely well
you've bought your ticket out of hell !

essence mixed with personality eventually and inevitably adds up to a sentimental fraud or a terrorist

or a combination of the two

HERS

the boys they give me a-tten-tion when they say stay i want to come although my super-ego says best run it seems we know this son of a gun

'cause though i tingle and i blush a bit confused with this hot rush there's something in me that can see i'll soon be back upon my knees well it's alright not bad in fact this waiting for another smack

the place my lips next wish to be !

the mind is but a third of us our heart our body is the rest

Just to use that little part however shrewd however smart neglects the total creation distorts the view negates the one knows not the father not the son it's true this seems an abstract thought could lead to somewhere could lead to naught however limited our mind however changing lost in time but once again you're told to be attentive to your heart body not obsessed with outer change know your body heart n' brains have patience to review the lot don't get lost in outer plots find your way to what rings true get to know me as i know you !

are you a christian
is there love in your heart
or just talking smart

are you a moslem know allah the one or just playing mind games just having some fun

are you a jew
are you

oh my god my dear man i'm no other than you !

my work is not dependent on another word another song it all depends on where i rest within my soul within my breast so get thee from me with your claims for our support in your small aims though if you're heading for the top i'll walk with you and i'll not stop to dally in the daffodils to praise the sky

or praise the hills
or drip some blood
'cause here and there
a cloud descends from god knows where

things do not move along in life

they merely shake !

once you've thought of afterwards or the place that you have been once you've thought of who'll be there or who you might have seen once you've thought of who said what and who'll be next to scream once you've seen imagination's not the same as being !

it seems sometimes you'll always be a little girl that i can see afloat within a fantasy with little men who look like me behind the changing pictures, mood deeper than the parts that brood farther than the emerald sea in essence

where the you and me dissolve into a unity
where i am you
and you are me

before you consider
be sure you stand balanced where you are !

you know it's really not the same to walk in sunshine walk in rain a heart of gold a heart of ice a gesture or something right and should you ask me what i see i say come back when you can be within your body and your heart and not merely being smart there i can talk to you or show a little bit of what i know and if by chance you wish to take remember -

you must be awake !

GOOD NEWS

in heaven
there ain't no jews there ain't no christians too no moslems buddhists hindus sikhs

even that is doubtful as god is one in us when we reach his resting place there's only him just just !

FIRST OF ALL

you're analysing everyone know just what they should do best see that you're first grounded and happy you're just you !

I will not talk
I will not lie
i've had enough my friend Good-Bye !

the question's always
where you're going never where you are

will you love me
should you travel far

those questions always pose themselves as if there's answers clear that subtle error no one sees blocks out the now & here

ICARUS

i've seen big hearts so big in fact it's hard to take as not an act

when they jump their hurdles quick you're happy to survive the kick but have you ever seen them run into a wall, it's not much fun the rider on the ground so stunned he can't recall how it begun so those with hearts like giant balloons best check the wind and check the moon secure the right to navigate stay on course the time is late !

sincerity, sincerity
hath thou forsaken me that i am blind
and cannot see
the simple truth
that dwells in me

they taught me how to dodge and lie to hide my feelings by and by and now it's reached that awful point where i no longer know what's right

it seems i've lost my faculty of knowing my sincerity !

white man
talk with forked tong

what's my motivation what's my state of mind how to see the future
recognize your kind

TOUCH LIGHTLY

even you that study
you who say you work remember your aim
and that you are yet to attain it
and
even now and until then you are violent man !

MIRROR MIRROR
ON THE WALL

don't fight your fears or speculate on how to dodge jealousy and hate but try for once to visualise the life of him that you despise the truth that there can nothing be outside yourself that you can see that doesn't rest within your being this so called outer thing you've seen so if you know your brother well you've seen yourself within his shell and by this act eliminate all the painful hurt and hate

PATIENCE AND PERSEVERANCE

you must push on with patience
whatever that might mean you must have patience but not forget the truth

you once had seen !

the hemorrhoid of humanity
hanging from a slit
bleeding in the shit

crying in its pain expanding in self pity embarrassed with its stain life on earth

is a punishment

you have to buy a ticket out

learn something !

they said it wasn't possible for the lord to speak his mind they thought that it was crazy to say man's eyes were blind to say his ears were deaf an insult to his being the last thought they could tolerate

was the thought that they'd been seen

THE LAST THING
AN EGO
CAN AFFORD

UNDERSTAND !

when there is no day, no night when there is no greed no fright when the hand has opened wide when there is no more false pride when the pain has entered deep burning out the dreams, the sleep welcomed as a force so bold changing all it touched to gold

IT'S NOT JUST THE STORY
IT'S THE STORY OF HUMANITY !

i've come from a war zone there's fighting going on the children's lives are on the line the blood's upon the ground the people, stuck in dreamland with all the glory, pride they cannot move they cannot think and scared like hell to die !

GOOD AS ME

how good i am
how clean and pure
it's all the others
i am sure
who by their force and ignorance cause me all this pain i sense since i've heard of higher things it's clear to me from what i've seen if everyone could only be as good as me if they could see then all would surely be alright a peace could reign the world would light if only they could learn to hear how good i am how much i bear now i just can't communicate they're all so strange there's so much hate and what an awful thing would be were this the way that they see me !

once you've got your money and all that it had bought once you've got your will made out once you've got your plot no doubt by then you're 'well along in years' i think it's said and surely ain't got no complaints as was you that made your bed but what of all the others with their bankers brokers too do you think by any chance they're contented just like you ?

who is you
who is me

and if it's true that we are one then how come we talk together like two like me and you

for as it seems is that part of dreams that one asks and someone else replies ?

i see a lot of shipwrecks hanging from a cliff

listing in the mist

i see the tide go to and fro i see the waves
that roll and grow
i see the choppy waters dance

those ships they hardly had a chance !

tell me what your picture's like of life, of company

at breakfast, evening tea

of business, family

tell me what you see !

on the way to nowhere through the gates of hell through the lovely pictures in a prison cell

mothers teach their children how to read and spell

hardly any prison breaks only yell, yell, yell

in HELL !

YA'LLAH

now you children get you out of the city from the gout

struggle in relationship get to know your brother quick

take it easy
day by day learn to think and learn to pray

the mad men
run society
no time to argue time to flee

ETERNITY

the lord has blessed me in his way

the truth is shown as they say

he showed me death which leaves me free

to live in his
eternity

I'LL TAKE CARE OF YOU

yes yes, ho ho,
like santa claus
like saville row

stick with us and we'll take care of all your needs, from here to there !

the truth you want to speak so much is just a lot of silly mush it's really not the truth you see just pointing out some falsity so we keep busy with our minds rehashing things another time not realising a bit the shit, no matter how it's shook

will never take us where we look for clarity and peace of mind restricted not by sense-bound time

'oh ho' you say
'what big words used'
i say to you
'baby needs shoes'
you say
'alright, indeed why not i think it's leather that you've got'

in the belly of the devil as the vomit of a spy as jonah in the whale as the catcher in the rye as the nubian guard of arabian sheikhs as the babylon whore separating her cheeks

as the king's tax collector as the pimp on his beat as the greedy dog catcher as the bitches in heat

as the guard in the jail house as a cop on the take for country or family we'll outdo the snake !

what man asks from man essentially only god can give god can only give it if man cleans up his act !

ASSURANCE

the appearance of assurance in a battered leaky boat the waves approach
they're ten feet tall
an inner voice says ain't nothing at all but water !

the girls it's true they dress to show all the things i wish to know once more again although i've seen a thousand times within my dreams but now this flesh is real, moist its at this point i have no choice to touch and taste to have and hold to make a move so very bold who can resist this energy i want to do it more than pee !

it's not this way and it's not that way too so where you gonna go and what are you gonna do if you cannot find someone to share your fantasy

who you gonna talk to who you gonna be !

the advice of the masses the advice of the wise the suspicious bank teller the most hopeful bride

the thought of tomorrow the impending storm the drunk on your door step the babies being born

i'll tell you my children it's not very clear why we're born in the first place why it's so hard to hear the voice of eternity as it tries to break through with its wisdom and patience christian moslem or jew

I AM the prayer bead and I AM the string I AM the honey and I AM the sting I AM the church bell and I AM the ring I AM the knowledge and I AM the being I AM the song , it is I that do sing the finger that points and the bloody gold ring I AM the sinner and I AM the sin I AM the prize
and the one who does win

I've heard the crow
it seems i must go
let no one mourn
i've seen the show

the purpose it seems is to see the dreams and to go out clean !

HOMECOMING

you'd better learn to live at home and share your space with those that roam as you do when you wish to see if you can find a place to be with friends
not looking for a ride but just a quiet place to hide from those that take them foolishly that sap their strength incessantly and leave them little space to breathe they come to you for some relief

for those that come for reasons true never any harm will do but share a space and help it grow and not impose their own floorshow don't look like you've been looking

you've been looking for a safe train on a package tour

Don't wilt
in the light of the Truth
